

Propaganda films created by partisan hacks should not be shown within two months of the election.